Stanford vs. Duke Football Saturday, September 10

WDCSA is chartering a bus to travel to Stanford's September 10 football contest at Duke. This full-day trip will depart Washington around 8:30 am and return around midnight. Continental breakfast and a post-game meal (probably pizza) on the bus will be included in the price of $50-$75/person (depending on the number of riders.) Game tickets ($45) and Stanford pre-game tailgate tickets (price TBD) will be available for separate purchase from the Stanford Alumni Association.

For those who wish to travel separately, WDCSA has information on hotels and restaurants in Durham and parking at the stadium ($10/car.) Washington Duke Inn is a very pricey, but very nice, option on campus and within walking distance to the stadium.

Duke Tower Hotel and Condo is another slightly less convenient option. As far as restaurants, Tyler's Restaurant and Taproom is near the D Bulls Stadium and is a fun spot with other bars and rests. For further information, please email Chris Shinkman (c.shinkman@verizon.net) or Nels Nordquist (nelspeter@yahoo.com).

There will be only one bus, so seating is limited; it is being filled on a first-come, first-served basis. To secure your seats on the bus, send a deposit check for $50/person made out to WDCSA to: Chris Shinkman 5607 Wood Way, Bethesda, MD 20816.

Stanford vs. Duke Football Game Watch Saturday, September 10 2:30 pm

Washington, DC 20001

Can't make it down to Durham to watch the game in person? Don't worry, WDCSA has arranged a local option. The Cardinal Faithful will gather at RFD, across from the Verizon Center and one block from the Chinatown Metro stop.

Kick-off is at 3:30pm and the private room in the back has been reserved for us starting at 2:30pm. Food and drink specials will be provided and this will be a joint game watch with the Washington DC Duke Alumni Club. No reservations are required, but come wearing Stanford garb and be prepared to be loud and proud. Questions? Contact Chris Shinkman, P '98 at 301-229-4427 or c.shinkman@verizon.net

SOLD OUT!

WDCSA and the Washington DC/Baltimore Chapter of the Stanford Graduate School of Business present an unprecedented private viewing of The Ralls Collection 20th anniversary celebration of "20 Years, 20 Artists", cocktails, and discussion led by renowned business figure, art expert, and philanthropist Marsha Ralls (Stanford Graduate School of Business Executive Program, '02)

Trained initially at Sotheby's Auction House, as an apprentice to the 20th century master Robert Rauschenberg, and as student in executive business programs both at Stanford and M.I.T., Ms. Ralls is informed by unique expertise and life experience in both domains of art and business, and intersections in between. She serves on several business organization boards, including for the global Entrepreneurs Organization (EO) and the Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship (NFTE). She has since gone on to advise governments – most recently that of United Arab Emirates – on economic development through the Arts.

WDCSA Family Brunch/International Potluck

Saturday, October 8 11:30-2:30 pm
National Arboretum

FAMILY FRIENDLY EVENT

Join fellow Stanford alums and their families for an international potluck and brunch at the National Arboretum. We were inspired by the workshop and dinner event Black Chefs in the White House, and would like to extend our cultural exploration for Stanford food lovers. This event will be held in conjunction with 64th Annual Orchid Show at the Asian Pavilion of the National Arboretum where you can enjoy a splendid tour and free workshops.

We invite you to bring an international-themed dish and share with us any food and culture secrets you know, either from your home country or from your family members. The theme and story of your dish should follow the concept of NPR's Splendid Table <http://splendidtable.publicradio.org/>.

The event is free of charge and spaces are unlimited. If interested, please RSVP to Jenny Hou at jennyhou@stanfordalumni.org, so that we will be able to coordinate the diversity of the dishes brought to share.

There are free educational workshops and gigantic orchid tent sales throughout the day organized by National Capital Orchid Society. You can tour the display and attend the workshop either before or after our brunch. Please check out the 64th Annual Orchid Show website for a detailed workshop schedule <http://www.ncos.us/ncos/fallshow.htm>.

If you have any questions, contact Jenny Hou at jennyhou@stanfordalumni.org, or Patricia Marby Harrison at patriciamarbyharrison@gmail.com.
